

Friday 11th February 2022

Dear Parents,

We are delighted to announce the plans for St. Joseph's annual Book Week Celebrations, this year's theme will be a celebration of Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland and will take place the week commencing Monday 28th February.

Book Fair

We will be selling books old and new with a second hand book sale and welcome any donations. We are thrilled to welcome Dulwich Books, to offer us our very own bespoke Book Fair, with new titles available and world book day tokens accepted.

Library Visits & Dance Workshop

Library visits will continue and we will welcome West End in Schools to provide a dance workshop and the opportunity for all classes to perform. Please make sure you have completed your child's consent form and made a payment of £3.00 for the workshop via your parent pay account.

World Book Day - Mad Hatters Fancy Dress Parade & Tea Party

On World Book Day, all the children are invited to dress up as a book character of their choice, we are asking for a donation of £1.00 to enter the Mad Hatters Fancy Dress & Hat Parade. We will be making hats in school and there will be prizes for the Most Creative Costume and Madest Hat! The Mad Hatters Tea Party will include a themed lunch and class tea party. We are kindly asking for donations of home-made bakes and shop bought cakes to be sent in to school that day (No Nuts & clearly labeled ingredients please).

Live Bedtime Story Event

Look out for the chance to join us on zoom and take part in our live Bedtime Story Event with a range of stories to choose from, read to you by the Staff of St. Josephs, from the comfort of your living room.

Please see below for a timetable of the week's events. We thank you for your continued support and look forward to sharing a fun filled week with you.

Yours Sincerely,
Mrs M. Tope & Miss N. Bickmore
Reading & Writing Lead
