How much is it?

Registration for Portuguese classes costs £85.23 per anum (€100). Payment of this fee is required to attend Portuguese extracurricular courses. This sole payment entitles you to attend the course for the academic year. You will also be offered a textbook and the possibility of applying for a Camões' language proficiency exam.

In specific circumstances the registration fee may be reduced. This is the case for families registering siblings or with an unemployed parent as well as for our associated schools as families have often already made a contribution.

Both parents / carers unemployed	£17,05 (20€/child)
One parent / carer unemployed	£51,14 (60€/child)
Two children registered	£68,18 (80€/child)
Three or more children registered	£63,92 (75€/child)
Single-parent family	£68,18 (80€/child)

How do I prove I am a single parent?

You need to provide us with a document from the government that clearly states your circumstances. For example, a copy of your council tax where this is stated.

How do I prove I am unemployed?

You need to provide us with an up-to-date document from the government that clearly states your circumstances. For example, sign in to your Universal Credit account to find it.

How do I pay?

1. By Bank Transfer

You may pay directly to the Portuguese Education Department's (Coordenação de Ensino) bank account using the student's EPE number as a reference.

After you complete your payment, you must send proof of payment to the Portuguese Department. This must clearly display the reference number and the date of payment.
